Cavendish Park

 GREENFORD
PARK HOMES[®]

A large, multi-arched brick structure spans a canal. The central arch is the largest and most prominent. The brickwork is weathered and shows some moss. On the left, a weeping willow tree hangs its long, thin branches over the water. In the distance, a person is visible in a small boat on the canal. The background is filled with trees and foliage.

Beautiful Hampshire, Berkshire and Surrey countryside in easy reach

Lovely peaceful walks along the sheltered banks of Basingstoke Canal are only a short drive away. Then there's Yateley Lakes, the River Blackwater, Wokingham, Farnham and Windsor also nearby.

The location of Cavendish Park, on the borders of all three counties, offers a brilliant combination of being close to town centres and also to fantastic countryside.
